AIM HIGH

An education event for parents hosted by the Right Honourable Stuart Lawrence

What are the sessions?

These online sessions are for Lambeth parents / carers with specific focus on Black Caribbean parents / carers.

The Rt Hon Stuart Lawrence will facilitate questions and discussion with parents around the session's theme:

providing career advice, helpful tips and practical advice to support their children in their educational, post education and professional journeys.

The theme of each session will be the same as the Aim High events for pupils taking place in the 2020-21 school year. This session will focus on Law. Jazmin Cole a Trainee solicitor from Freeth's law firm will be the guest speaker.

There will be a Q&A and discussion section as part of each event.

Why are we doing them?

These events are being run as part of the Lambeth School Partnership's Raising the Game initiative. Aim High sessions have been run for pupils in year 2 to year 10 over the last two years. Now the initiative also wants a similar opportunity for parents / carers so that they can be empowered to more effectively impact their children's success and achievement.

Attendance Cup Award

Well done to Year 3. Their class was well above the average weekly attendance and best at attending school this week with 97.32% of pupils coming to school.

Early Years Home Activities

Early Years homework activities will be set on Google Classroom, children will be coming home with their log-in details from today.

Coronavirus

If you suspect that you or your child may have the symptoms of coronavirus (new continuous cough, high temperature, loss of smell/taste), or actually have a positive case of coronavirus in your household — do not send your child to school.

Please follow government guidance, get tested and self-isolate for 14 days. If you receive a negative test result before the end of the 14 days, your child may return to school.
